

English – The Jolly Postman

This week our book has been 'The Jolly Christmas Postman'.

We wrote a beautiful description of Santa's Workshop that the postman visits at the end of the book

Star Write 05.12.25

Star Writer – Anna
Handwriting Hero – Elsie

RE – Prophecy and promise

We learned about Advent and revisited our advent promises.

Next week, please bring in a picture, object, or story about how your family celebrates Christmas.

Science – Everyday materials

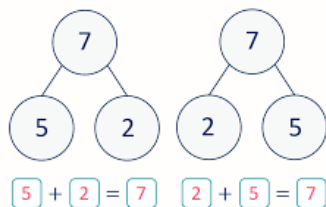

This week we conducted an investigation to see which materials were waterproof.

Active elf

We are enjoying our 'Active Elf', Bella, who brings us a new scroll each day with a physical activity to do or play and a random act of kindness to complete.

Maths

This week we have been plugging gaps in our previous maths learning. We have focused on whole part model.

Spellings (for Thursday 18th December)

5 spellings this week to practise our split digraphs.

5 spellings

skate eve fire
North Pole
tune

Phonics and reading

Please practise spotting these split vowel digraphs in books or out and about with your children at home:

a-e making the /ai/ sound,
as in skate.

e-e making the /ee/ sound as in Christmas Eve.

i-e making the /igh/ sound
as in fire.

o-e making the /oa/ sound,
as in pole.

u-e making the /oo/ or /yoo/sound as in tune.

Year One

St. Bernadette of Lourdes

PE

In our Invasion Games lesson, we put our defending and attacking skills into practise.

Nativity

We thoroughly enjoyed putting on our Nativity play this year. Thank you for coming and we hope you enjoyed it.

Gold Book:

Joy

For always taking so much care over her work. Well done!

Kindness award

Divine Am, Daisy

Class book share: This week we enjoyed listening to Gray's favourite book 'Milo Goes Bananas!'. Next week's book share: Joy

