

RE Homework Spring 1

Peace

To build upon our Catholic social teaching learning this half term, I would like your child to create an art or craft project about peace.

Please feel free to research your own projects or use one of these as inspiration.

Please can your child bring in their project by Monday 9th February so that they can show and tell their creations and talk about their peaceful place.