

English

In English, we have been reading and working on The Twits
by Roald Dahl.

The children wrote a character description of Mr Twit using fronted adverbials, expanded noun phrases, similes and metaphors.

Star Writer – Ada
Handwriting Hero – Bea

Maths

This week in Maths, we have been continuing with Multiplication and Division.

The children explored multiples of 3, 6, 9, 7 and 11, using their knowledge to solve word problems.

Anti-Bullying Week

In PSHE, we discussed Anti-Bullying Week and took part in the NSPCC Assembly. The children wrote acrostic poems linked to anti-bullying.

RE

This week, we began learning about Prophets and their roles. We started learning about the Prophet Elijah and the children thought about what Elijah might have said to King Ahab after he had broken his Covenant promise with God.

Science

This week, the children learnt about circuit components and their symbols. They then made some simple circuits to see which ones made a bulb light up.

Year 4

Autumn 2 2025

Week 2

Gold Book

Ted

Your contributions in class this week have been fantastic, and you have worked so hard. Well done! Keep it up 😊

Please note

There will be a TTRS competition from the 18th – 20th November. Please encourage your children to answer as many questions as possible to be in for the chance to win a prize!

Spellings

To be tested

Thursday 20th November

immature immeasurable impossible immortal imperfect impatient immovable impolite improper important enough length strength potatoes particular

Class Reading Books

The Twits – Roald Dahl

Homework

Maths & Science– Atom
Learning
TTRS
Boom Reader
Spellings