

English

Along the Tapajos

We have been writing a diary entry about "along the Tapajos" as if the children were one of the siblings within the story. We have used past perfect tense, figurative language and direct speech.

Star Writer - Isabelle C

Handwriting Hero - Elizabeth

Maths.

We have continued to have a key focus on fractions, with comparing, ordering and adding mixed numbers and improper fractions.

Gold Book!

Finley - For showing great attitude to his learning and applying himself in the best ways possible.

R.E

We have begun to understand the book of Samuel, with focus on who some of key figures are and who it was potentially written by.

Science

We have tested if a material is transparent, translucent or opaque using a torch,

Geography

We have learnt about the Amazonian people and what their quality of life is and how they live day by day.

PE

Swimming.

Spellings are above.

Rule- -tious or-ious PLUS statutory words and historical words)

applicable tolerable comfortable comfortably reasonable breakable valuably noticeably perishable fashionable embarrass environment equipped equipment especially

Year 5
St. Bakhita

Autumn 2

Week 2

PSHE

We have paid a key focus to anti-bullying week and discussing different scenarios in which the children could support someone else

DT

We have practiced our blanket stitch and trying to begin practice for our overall project.

Homework

Times Tables Rock Stars
Atom Learning Boom
Reader Spellings

Homework to be well presented, neat and it should be evident that an appropriate amount of time has been spent on it so it can be completed to a high standard.