

English

Text: The Egyptian Cinderella

We have focused on using the features of a diary entry, expanded noun phrases and fronted adverbial to write a first person, past tense diary entry around the second half of 'the Egyptian Cinderella'

Handwriting Hero- Ali

Star Writer- Issabelle C

Next week we will be writing a fact file on the river Nile!

Maths

Multi-step addition and subtraction

Compare Calculations

Finding Missing Numbers

Problem solving and Reasoning

End of Block Assessment

R.E

Discuss what loving my neighbour looks like today and relating to what a sin is with work towards repairing sin

Science

Investigate fair test and controlling variables

History

to understand that one of the greatest Egyptians achievements was writing

PE

Basketball and Tag Rugby

Homework

Times Tables Rock Stars
Atom Learning Boom
Reader Spellings

Homework to be well presented, neat and it should be evident that an appropriate amount of time has been spent on it so it can be completed to a high standard.

RE Homework for this term:

Children to write a fact file and quote from sister Dorothy Stang. Explain what their chosen quote means and how it can inspire them to make the world a better place.

Sister Dorothy Stang worked to protect the amazon rainforest and help bring settler farmers together to give them greater power in challenging deforestation Due: 24/10/2025

Year 5
St. Bakhita

Autumn 1

Week 5

Gold Book!

Lorena – Making strides in English, always using her time well and become a role model for others!

Spellings are above.

Rule- -tious or-ious PLUS statutory words and historical words)

ambitious cautious infectious anxious obnoxious superstitious nutritious conscious controversy convenience correspond criticise ancient

Egypt

archaeologist

PSHE

To understand my rights.

Art

Using Oil Pastels to take their sketches to a specific design using blending smudging and negative spaces to build depth.