

In Computing, we were comparing which we preferred computers or good old paper and pen! We have drawn the Kandinsky circles during our transition day, so we then tried doing this on the computer. We discussed which we preferred and why, thinking about the pros and cons to both.

