We enjoyed celebrating Saint Francis of Assisi' Feast Day today. We enjoyed some different activities including making origami snakes, butterfly stained glass windows and a drawing of St Francis of Assisi with what he cared about.

The snakes were definitely the hardest but we persevered which is a great skill to learn.

All the butterflies are going to look amazing flying in our classroom.

Recycling

