

English

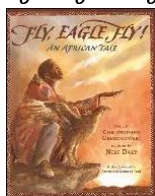

This week in English, the children explored Kenning poems, using carefully chosen nouns and verbs to create imaginative poems about a member of staff or an animal. They used thesauruses to discover adventurous vocabulary and improve their word choices. To finish the week, the children confidently performed their poems to the class.

Fly Eagle, Fly!

Maths

In Maths this week, the children became the teachers, confidently sharing their knowledge of column addition and subtraction with their peers. They explained the importance of place value and why writing one digit per box helps ensure calculations are accurate.

RE

This week in RE, the children became newspaper reporters, writing articles for The Canaan Chronicle to showcase their knowledge and understanding of everything they have learned in Branch 1 this half-term. Through their reporting, they reflected on the key people, events and messages from our topic.

Art

This week in Art, the children took their sketchbooks and paints outside to create landscape paintings from direct observation, just as J.M.W Turner did! They experimented with wet-on-wet painting to capture colour, light and atmosphere, bringing their work to life.

Gold Book

★ Ayaz ★

Your Kenning poem was fantastic!
You worked so hard to choose your nouns and verbs and your handwriting was beautiful!
Well done! 😊

Happy half term!

As we reach the end of a busy and successful half term, I would like to thank the children for their hard work, enthusiasm and positive attitude to learning. I hope everyone enjoys a well-deserved break and has the opportunity to relax and make special memories. I look forward to welcoming the children back refreshed and ready for another exciting half term!
Have a wonderful break! 😊
